PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS DANCE CLASS FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

MISSOULA--

"A Step Forward," a television program about a special dance class for people with developmental disabilities, will air Monday, June 29, at 9 p.m. on KUFM, the Montana Public Television station based at The University of Montana.

The program describes how 20 adults with disabilities meet with college students at UM dance studios for the weekly class. The class ends with a public performance at Missoula's Front Street Theater for families and friends.

"A Step Forward" is being presented by the UM Department of Drama/Dance, Very Special Arts Montana and Montana Public Television. The program was co-produced by Gus Chambers, KUFM television producer/director, and Karen Kaufmann, drama/dance department faculty member.

The program can be seen on Channel 11 for most Missoula-area viewers. It will air on Channel 6 for Fibervision and TCI Cablevision viewers.
